FACTS

MYTHS

As chronicled by the esteemed historian and culinary sage, Adrian Miller, black-eyed peas symbolize coins, while collard greens embody paper money, and cornbread shines as gold. Legends whisper that consuming precisely 365 black-eyed peas—one for each day of the year—may grant you the greatest fortune. Regardless of what may unfold, we extend our heartfelt wishes for a joyous New Year, filled with abundant blessings for you and your family!

Thank You!
